Cost: $40 In County | $50 Out of County
Includes continental breakfast & lunch

Location: Burlington County Emergency Services Training Center

Overcoming Leadership Challenges

This program will provide insight and information towards conquering 2 of the prominent challenges for leaders today

Ellen Yarborough - Former Deputy Chief & High School Psychology Teacher Ellen holds an MA in Secondary Education.

Presents - "Leading Gen Z - The Kids Are Alright, You Will Be Too"

This presentation will seek to re-introduce chief officers to the young firefighters in front of them and to provide them with the tools by which to understand who Generation Z is, what skill sets they bring to the table, and what challenges are in their way. For the fire service to continue to be an attractive career choice for tomorrow's leaders requires today's leaders to be able to know their recruits perhaps better than they now themselves.

Ken Himel, Fire Chief Bayou Cane, LA. a 26-year member of the fire service, the last 12 as chief. He is the 3rd. District Representative for the LA. Fire Chief's Association

Presents - "Don't Be That Person"

This program will provide attendees with the ability to recognize and correct behaviors which have proven to be destructive to themselves and those who they work with and identifies the individual strength and commitment needed to remain focused on the mission as well as their individual careers. Participants will possess the skills necessary to recognize behaviors that will prevent them from being quality firefighters, company officers, and chief officers. CHANGE IS POSSIBLE!
